

By SCOTT HOLTZMAN

Airplane to Land

There's so much going on this week and throughout the summer that I'm going to put off my further comments on the McTendon record ban until later.

To get on to the excitement coming up, first is The Jefferson Airplane Show (Sunday at the Coliseum). I have recommended their "Wreckless Pillow" album several times and I hope by now that you've either bought it or listened to a friend's copy. It is one of the most completely satisfying albums I have in my collection. The reason is that every band is good. It's not one of those albums that makes you run to the record player when the third band comes up, so you can skip it.

They probably won't have their light show with them because there is audience behind them and no place to project, but they don't need it with Gracie out front belting out with that brassy trumpet she's got stuck in her throat. (She's good looking, too.)

I think KILT has one of the best balanced shows to come along in a long time. The Pozo Secos and The Airplane are both folk rock oriented groups and The Five Americans, Neal Ford & the Fanatics and the fever tree are three rock groups with entirely different sounds. Don't miss this one.

Next Saturday, we have Paul Revere & The (new) Raiders, Roy Head, Billy Joe Royal, Steve Alaimo and The Board of Directors coming in. That will be exciting because all of the girls want to see the new members of The Raiders.

I talked to each of them long distance and they are very excited about the whole thing. They've been deep in rehearsals for three weeks, learning all of the songs. That's a big responsibility, having to take the place of such an established group, but I'm sure Paul and Mark know exactly what they are doing. They've done it before. Get out there and make the new guys feel welcome.

On July 8, we have The Mamas & Papas coming in. Also, Joe Tex (June 11), Otis Redding (July 9), Ray Charles (July 10), and Herman's Hermits (July 22). Then, there's Wayne Newton (Aug. 12) and The Monkees, but I can't announce the date at this time. How is that for a summerful of good shows? I can't wait.

The Yellow Balloon ran out of air at The Catcombs recently.

Buy the new Beatles album. There's no need to say any more about it. Just buy it and you won't be disappointed. The only thing that has ever disappointed me about The Beatles is John Lennon's complete lack of taste in painting the 1967 Peace Poster with psychedelic patterns and then putting dark glass in it so no one would know who was inside. Come on.

KNUZ'S MOST REQUESTED: "Get On Out of My Push Me" by the fever tree, "Windy" by The Moving Sidewalks, "Windy" by The Association.

KILT'S MOST REQUESTED: "Get On Out of My Push Me" by the fever tree, "Come On, I'm Not a Boy" by Every Mother's Son, "San Francisco, Where the Flowers" by Scott McKenzie.

SCOTT'S SNEAK OF THE WEEK: Watch for it on The Chuck Dunaway and Larry Kane Shows—Get Him Out of Your Mind by The Underground (Mainstream).

Mike Knust: fever tree

Gracie: The Airplane

Houston Post
6-4-67

SUNDAY

KILT Out of School Spectacular: The Jefferson Airplane, The Pozo Seco Singers, The Five Americans, Neal Ford and The Fanatics and the fever tree, two shows, 3 and 7 PM, Coliseum.

MONDAY

The Music Machine, The Five Americans, The Sixpents, The Moving Sidewalks, A-440 and the fever tree: Moody Center (Galveston). The Runaways: Hullabaloo.

TUESDAY

The Moving Sidewalks: Angleton Fairgrounds. The Raspberry Moon: Hullabaloo.

WEDNESDAY

The Dimensions: Hullabaloo.

THURSDAY

Mickey and The Caravans: Hullabaloo.

FRIDAY

The Reasons Why: Bellairs Community Building, Bellairs Elephant Walk teen dance to benefit Hermann Park Zoo, $1 admission. The Agents: Veterans Hall (Westport). the fever tree: The Dairy Bar (Freeport). The Soul Survivors and The Music Machine: Safari (Baytown). Thursday's Children and The Coastliners: Hullabaloo.

SATURDAY

Jack Clark Productions and KNUZ present Paul Revere and The Raiders with Roy Head, Billy Joe Royal, Steve Alaimo and The Board of Directors: Coliseum. Thursday's Children: The Crown Room, King Edward Hotel (Houston). The Shandells: Bellairs City Gym. The Moving Sidewalks: The Dairy Bar (Freeport). the fever tree: The Piggie Pen (Lake Charles, La). The Lavender Hour and The Grammyphones: Hullabaloo. The Dimensions: Kerwin High School (Galveston).

OPENINGS

The Love Street Light Circus Feel Good Machine. Formerly The National Hang Up and Trust Co at Allen's Landing, 12 and over club featuring Thursday the fever tree, Friday The Starvation Army Band and Saturday The Red Crayola plus The Starvation Army Band.